

Senior First Officer Nigel Chew

Senior First Officer Nigel Chew works for Singapore Airlines and has been with the company for over 13 years. He currently flies the A350 after flying the B777 and A330. Nigel served in ALPA-S from 2013 to 2021 under the InfoComm Committee and as the Honorary Secretary.

Nigel served in the Singapore military for 2 years as a Signal Officer in the Air Defence Battalion before setting off to New Zealand in 2005 to pursue his flying and studies at Massey University. Nigel graduated with a Bachelor of Aviation in 2008, and a Post Graduate Diploma in Aviation in 2012.

Nigel has been involved with ASAP since 2015 and currently serves as the Vice Chairperson. He has been participating in GPS as a panellist and in the planning since 2017.